Though the fares for sea-journeys throughout the world are now very high, the Government have arranged that the price of a return ticket to and from the Hedjaz, shall be only Rs. 125, which is no higher than pre-war rates.

The Government is also arranging that pilgrims shall obtain their passports in their own districts from the District and Sub-Divisional Officers and from Political Officers in Indian States.

During the war it was difficult to make journeys by sea, but now that the enemies of the King-Emperor have been conquered, every effort is being made by the Government to provide facilities for the pilgrimage and to ensure the comfort of the pilgrims.
